

Black Hefty Bag Test

$ilkMoney

Father's Day

Why are black people afraid of chainsaws?
Run nigga nigga nigga
You could say motorcycle too, vrroooom

You used to wanna be Elvis Presley, but now you James Brown
Identifying with any race that gets you paid pal
Niggerfishing and skin pretenders all in the same pile
If I had a white bitch I'd get her painted a Rihanna shade brown

It's such a shame how they love nigga euphemisms
And nigga movies with no niggas in them
They get a wigga like Bruno Mars to shoot at a dark conclusion
But this part's the truest, how I start right angle then fall apart congruent

How they call white angels, but are the darkies humans
[?] Grammys all stealing from niggas who weren't recipients
Copy and pasting our penmanship and won't even give lyricists their percentage

Shit is sickening, Angie Stone hand me the tone and imma split his wig

Leave his curl activated lidded all on his glitted kicks
I'll be one less lonely nigga, like Justin Bieber
But niggas seem to forget cause I keep me a new Travis Scott feature

Invited to the cookout but I forgot seasonings
Forgot my nature and I stopped breathing
But trading your races when your hairline declines and starts migrating

These migraines got me unable to describe pains
The mild strain behind my cornea
Forces me to only wanna see without my eye's gaze
The whole left side of my mind feels like that mind game
And my mind's plain, but I got a time frame
So I got no time to focus on a healthy mindstate
The gold control the system

Destroy the mold and recreate the mold again
Shut down these artificial organisms like the cyber initiative
Escape the chainsaws before I tore a ligament
If they get me before it's over with
Then just know it was foretold they'd get me
And I'll be just one less lonely nigga

One less lonely nigga

One less lonely nigga

One less lonely nigga

Gonna be one less lonely nigga
