III Bill

Apocalypse, the angel of death, the octopus
The two-headed eagle, thirty-third degree Hebrew
I speaks Mossad, Hamas, and the Hezbollah
And the CIA-funded Guatemalan terror squads
The Pentagon's the TV producer, the war's the product
And the media's the salesperson hustling consumers
Global instability, terror networks, embassy bombings
A thousand ways to get the century popping
When mobs of people storm the neighbourhood banks
Riots in Time Square paralyzed by suicide bombings and tanks
Confined to evil, rides are regal
Emperors are ripped from their thrones by the people and then shot in their cerebral
One got away, created an empire made of fire
Now he crying that the CIA made him wear a wire
Now he getting waterboarded up with some pliers
Pulling out his fingernails every time he tell a lie

Pyramids of Mars AKA Kill Devil Hills
Existence of God, Jihad, Kill Devil Kill
Criminal official walk through with limited edition pistols

So many notches in my belt of the victims I have accumulated
I got a vision, the light in my head illuminated
Your mind's scattered and broken and battered
So what does it matter that a rat-ass bastard fell down Jacob's ladder?
I climbed the pyramid and punch him in the eyeball
Give him a black eye, take a picture with my iPhone
Now his eye swolled ripping out my sidearm
They don't like me, I'm ghetto, I spit and get my high on
Tell the truth a lot, been in this booth a lot
Keeping it raw whether I'm in a bad mood or not Open your mind with the venomous rhyme, a rare skill
Lines born in a cypher, you asked for a square deal
You see me grinning, your head is spinning
The symbolism is just like prison, I'm trying to free you from your condition
I got a suspicion you bitches are wishing me gone
I'm hitting the chron, a kiss on the cheek and it's gone
