III Bill

This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!

Yeah I know what anger is, I be pissed off often
It's the dark side of the mind, proceed with caution
A total loss of control can feel awesome, it's a rush
Imagine what Mike Tyson releases with each punch
You could feel his anger through the TV
People relate to it until they do it
They punch they neighbor in the face, screw it!
It happens everyday, road rage
Angry teens with shotguns shoot up the place who don't relate
People kill each other over nothin'
Imagine the level of anger it would take to cause the destruction
Not very much, all they have to do is push a button
An hour later the entire planet cooked to nothin'
Tried anger management out, that shit don't work
It only made me more pissed off and more of a jerk
Fuck outta here, you could get laced with the fade
And if I get angry enough you get sprayed with the AK!

This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile

Enter the center of death and insanity
Massive anarchy and casualties where the anger breed
A UFO floatin' in zero gravity
I'm the anger of humanity I make your planet bleed
Vaporize you, fade away anxiously
I make you drink a Gatorade mixed with anti-freeze
Sometimes I'm just a hot-headed angry creep
Shoot you from a block away thanks for the fancy beans
And the fancy guns, knife you up
Splash your team with gasoline and light you up
Run up on you, slice you up
Spit roast you over open fire, spice you up
Turn your fuckin' head into a Jesus piece, ice you up
Not the type of guy you trust, I erupt
Tie you up, torture you slowly and make sure you die enough
To make sure you cry enough
Before I send you to the Pearly Gates, flying up!

This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!

You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
This is anger! Madness!
You're quite hostile
