

Are We So Innocent

Ill Niño

Another black day, leg break
Heavy metal head-shake
A real mother fucker
I was born for this
I turned into everything you hated
Jaw break, shit-head, Latin metal army
My friends don't roll with you
Real mother fuckers and we're out for the crew
Now your style is old and dated
Highly loved but largely hated

You're just pissing me off
You're just pissing me off
You're just pissing me off

When my choice is guilty the same as you
Are we so innocent?
When my choice is filthy the same as you
Are we so innocent?

I'm just another outcast, wet-back
Piece of shit from way back
Nasty mother fucker
I am made of stone
Smell like shit, may look corroded
Like my music loud, distorted
I don't need your fucking pill drink, head-shrink cracked sink, couch stink, I don't fucking lip sync
Shitty friends and midnight slumbers
666 my private number

Quien te callara?
You know I'm not afraid to die
Quien te callara?
You know I'm not afraid to die

When my choice is guilty the same as you
Are we so innocent?
When my choice is filthy the same as you
Are we so innocent?
When my heart is black am I just like you
End of the innocence
The moral of the story I must get through
Fuck all your innocence

When my choice is guilty the same as you
Are we so innocent?
When my choice is filthy the same as you
Are we so innocent?
When my heart is black am I just like you
End of the innocence
The moral of the story I must get through
Fuck all your innocence
