

Brave Soul

Illenium

I couldn't sleep all last night
It's been two years since you left my life, oh-oh
I know you're stuck on the other side
But I hope this time that you'll finally say, "Goodbye"

But for now
I'll sing the songs that'll rip you from my memories
Sometimes I wanna forget

Here's to your brave soul
You fought but you lost hold
Now I'm alone to face the truth

You left me broken
Shattered to pieces
And how can I go on without you

And I know you're shining
Ever so brightly
Won't you lead me through the night?

Here's to your brave soul
I'm trying to go on without you

I dreamt of you last night
It's been ten years since you lost your life
And you stay on my mind all the time
Now I will never say, "Goodbye"

From now on
I'll sing the songs that'll keep you in my memories
I hope I won't forget

Here's to your brave soul
You fought but you lost hold
Now I'm alone to face the truth

You left me broken
Shattered to pieces
And how can I go on without you?

And I know you're shining
Ever so brightly
Won't you lead me through the night?

Here's to your brave soul
I'm trying to go on without you
(I'm trying to go on without you)

(I'm trying to go on without you)
(I'm trying to go on without you)
