

Broken Ones

Illenium

I know the way the story goes
The first part is the fun
We leave the room a little cold
To keep each other warm

Just for a minute
'Fore the bombs are hitting
And every night it turns to war

Thought we had a vision
Don't know what I see in us
No more

Cause we're halfway broken
Tryna make up
Damage already done

And it's only
One way down
Guess now we'll join the club

'Cause everyone falls so hard
And everything falls apart

But we know we
Still got heart
Here's to the broken ones

Here's to the broken ones
Broken
Here's to the broken ones

I used to know your breathing sounds
You'd sound me off to sleep
Oh, we're just lying quiet now
Both wide awake

But dreaming of that minute
'Fore the bombs were hitting
And every night it turns to war

Thought we had a vision
Don't know what I see in us
No more

Cause we're halfway broken
Tryna make up
Damage already done

And it's only
One way down
Guess now we'll join the club

'Cause everyone falls so hard
And everything falls apart

But we know we

Still got heart
Here's to the broken ones
Here's to the broken ones
