

Feels Like You

Illenium

Time flickers like gold under my skin
Ripples like water
Your echoes trapped in the wind
No matter how long
How long it's been

In the silence, there's a voice that fills the room
Feels like you, feels like you
When I'm breathing, there's a vision coming through
Feels like you, feels like you

When I'm breathing, when I'm breathing
Feels like you, feels like you
When I'm breathing, when I'm breathing
Feels like you, feels like you

I see your ghost like an old friend, it's so familiar
I feel this feeling now and then, so familiar

It feels like you, it feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you

In the silence, there's a voice that fills the room
Feels like you, feels like you
When I'm breathing, there's a vision coming through
Feels like you, feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you

It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
Feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
Feels like you

When I'm breathing, when I'm breathing
Feels like you, feels like you

It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
It feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you, it feels like you
Feels like you
