

First Time

Illenium

I know that we haven't met but I know your vibe
Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind
It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times
Now we're at it again, we're at it again for the very first time

Hello, stranger
I don't know your name but I recognize your energy
A breath-taker
You give me déjà vu, this is feeling like a memory, yeah

Your lips look so familiar
And I don't know if this real or just the liquor
But this feeling is major
It might sound a little strange 'cause

I know that we haven't met but I know your vibe
Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind
It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times
Now we're at it again, we're at it again

I know that we haven't met but I know your vibe
Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind
It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times
Now we're at it again, we're at it again for the very first time

For the very first time
For the very first time

Am I being cliché?
Saying that you're probably from a dream I had
I will put you on replay
You're the TV show marathon on all damn weekend

Babe, I can't lie, it kinda creeps me out
How you say what's on my mind before it leaves my mouth
Yeah, it's hard for me to explain
I know it probably sounds strange

I know that we haven't met but I know your vibe
Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind
It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times
Now we're at it again, we're at it again

I know that we haven't met but I know your vibe
Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind
It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times
Now we're at it again, we're at it again for the very first time

For the very first time
For the very first time

We're at it again, we're at it again
We're at it again, again
For the very first time

We're at it again, we're at it again
We're at it again, again
