

Gold (Stupid Love)

Illenium

Two choices on my mind
Four hours on the road
Give way to control
Go around it a thousand times
I'm holding on too tight
Let it go and feel the ride

Is it stupid that I love you?
When I never felt so awake
Was it all just a big mistake?
Do I wanna let it happen?
Do you wanna just walk away?
When you feel like my soul mate

But it's all gold
And it's so good
But it's all gold
And it's so good

Is it stupid that I love you?
Was it all a big mistake?
Do I wanna let it happen?
Do you wanna just walk away?

Is it stupid that I love you?
Is it stupid that I love you?
Is it stupid that I love you, love you, love you, love, love, love...
Is it stupid that I love you?

Was it.. all all all
Is it stupid that I love you?
Was it.. all all all

Staring hard at the future
Only close my eyes to blink
This is my sanctuary
This is my place to think
I'm driving 'til I find
What I've been looking for
But it's inside

Do I walk on the cut glass?
Do I run to the forest?
Do I stand in the fire?
Or do I hide from this moment?
Do I let someone else take the fall
'Cause I'm scared that I'll lose it all

But it's all gold
And it's so good
You gotta work for it, work for it
Work for it, work for it
And so you should
Oh oh, oh

Was it.. all all all
Is it stupid that I love you?

Was it.. all all all

Is it stupid that I love you?
Was it all a big mistake?
Do I wanna let it happen?
Do you wanna just walk away?
