I'll Come Runnin

Illenium

Just like an echo, you fade away
You build your walls too high and it's a cage
I'll drop an anchor, I'll find a window
To make your broken wings fly away

Doesn't matter where you go, or where you've been
You just call, I come runnin'
No matter where you are, or what you did
If you call, if you call, I'll come runnin'

If you call, if you call, if you call
If you call, I'll come runnin'
If you call, if you call
If you call, I'll come runnin'
If you call, if you call
If you call, I'll come runnin', runnin'
I'll come runnin'
I'll come runnin'

Doesn't matter where you go, or where you've been
You just call, I come runnin'
I come runnin', I come runnin'
I come runnin'

I'll come runnin'
If you call, if you call
I'll c—
I'll come runnin'
If you call, if you call
If you call, I'll come runnin'
