

Nothing Ever After

Illenium

If you fall, then I will too
Into nothing ever after
Do we have to face the truth
Or look away, neglect the wounds?

All the warning signs we refused to see
Like a hurricane that's drowning me
So we build it up just to tear it down
But the pieces don't fit now

We're fallin' apart, we're fading away
Pretending the damage doesn't matter
Ignoring the scars, but now it's too late
We settle for nothin' ever after
And slip away

We'd been dreaming wide awake
Feeding poison to each other
It's too hard to walk away
'Cause it's easier to suffer

So we build it up just to tear it down
But the pieces don't fit now

We're fallin' apart, we're fading away
Pretending the damage doesn't matter
Ignoring the scars, but now it's too late
We settle for nothin' ever after
And slip away

Nothing
Nothing

We're fallin' apart, we're fading away
Pretending the damage doesn't matter
Ignoring the scars, now it's too late
We'll settle for nothin' ever after

And slip away
And slip away

And slip away

We're fallin' apart, we're fading away
Pretending the damage doesn't matter
Ignoring the scars, but now it's too late
We settle for nothing

Ever after (Ever after)
Ever after (Ever after)
Ever after (Ever after)
Ever after (Ever after)
We settle for nothing
Ever after
