Other Side

Illenium

Goddamn, how'd I end up here?
My dreams, they all turned to nightmares
I'm not the same since that November
I know that you don't deserve this
My problems, my fight, and your shit
I got them tangled up together

I won't blame you if you walk away

But won't you stay?
I got a battle here to fight
Don't know if I'll ever see the light
But won't you stay?
I don't need much from you tonight
Just tell me you'll meet me there alive
On the other side

Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
On the other side

On the other side
On the other side

I wasn't always like this
Sixteen and naive, a good kid
My mom and dad never saw it comin' (Ooh)
But now I'm stuck in the trenches
Crawlin' through my consequences
I guess it's time I stop the runnin'

I won't blame you if you walk away

But won't you stay?
I got a battle here to fight
Don't know if I'll ever see the light
But won't you stay?
I don't need much from you tonight
Just tell me you'll meet me there alive
On the other side

Ooh
Ooh
Ooh
On the other side

On the other side
On the other side

Ooh
Oh
Ah
