

Slave to the Rithm

Illenium

Slave to the rhythm
Slave to the rhythm
Slave to the rhythm
Slave to the rhythm

Don't play innocent with me
You knew the deal when you agreed
Yeah, you said it was okay
Acknowledged that I make you misbehave
Don't worry, I'll keep all your secrets safe
I'm hanging on to every word you say

So fall in to my arms
Keep on dancing 'round like nothing really matters
Drown out the alarms
And if you're paranoid
Just remember
You are not alone
You are not alone, alone, alone, alone

Now your heart is a dead horse
There's no use in beating
Hit 'em with a mind fuck

There's no one else to blame for harvesting your pain
You euthanised yourself all your own
Soon you'll be a dream, a ghost in the machine
No, there's no escape from the Holocaust of consciousness

So bow to your faceless god

Holocaust of consciousness
There's no escape
You're a slave to the rhythm

So fall in to my arms
Keep on dancing 'round like nothing really matters
Drown out the alarms
And if you're paranoid
Just remember
You are not alone
You are not alone
You are not alone
You are not alone
You are not alone

Yeah, you said it was okay
To get inside and fuck the pain away
Said it was cool to share you with my mates
Now your heart is a dead horse
There's no use in beating

The holocaust of consciousness

Slave to the rhythm

Slave to the rhythm
Slave to the rhythm
Slave to the rhythm
