Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war

Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war

The blood in your eyes
Feels like a fire frozen over
Flawed by design
You burn me alive, and I just get colder
All the knives you left in me
All the times you watch me bleed
If pain is worth fighting for

Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war
You burn me alive, and I just get colder
All the knives you left in me
All the times you watch me bleed
If pain is worth fighting for
Maybe this is war

I'm still holding my breath, gasping for air, but there's nothing left
t
Maybe this is war
I'm still holding my breath, there's one way out tonight
I'm still holding my breath, gasping for air, but there's nothing left
I'm still holding my breath, there's one way out tonight
One way out

Maybe this is war
I'm, I'm gasping for air till there's nothing left
Maybe this is war
You keep me holding my breath, yeah, holding my breath
Maybe this is war
I'm, I'm gasping for air till there's nothing left
Maybe this is war
You keep me holding my breath, yeah

Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war

Maybe this is war
Maybe this is war
