

Without You

Illenium

I feel you
Shutting down
After we've had one too many
Of these talks
You say you wanna stay
But I know you'd rather get up and walk away

Can you hear me
I'm crying out for you
I'm crying out for you again
I'm not ready
To let this go
We've come too far

And I won't ask you to stay
But promise well be okay
Running out of time
I'll let you clear your mind
I just hope you can find a way

Cause I can't wait a little bit longer
And I can't be a little bit stronger
And know things won't be the same
But I'm willing to take the blame
Cause I don't wanna be without you
I don't wanna be without you

I'm not me
And you're not you
When we're fighting like this
Can't we just go back to where we were
I know you think I'm naive
But I know that you're worth fighting for and I believe

And I won't ask you to stay
But promise well be okay
Running out of time
I'll let you clear your mind
I just hope you can find a way

Cause I can't wait a little bit longer
And I can't be a little bit stronger
And know things won't be the same
But I'm willing to take the blame
Cause I don't wanna be without you
I don't wanna be without you

I don't wanna be without you
Cause I don't wanna be without you
I don't wanna be without you
