

CYCLONE

ILLUMISHADE

I can give myself up
It's a fear that I have
It's an urge that I feel
That can never be ignored
Close my eyes and then let go

(Close my eyes and then let go)

Fleeing the chaos
I will hide inside the cyclone's eye
Can't escape the storm inside

I can tear this place up
Throw caution to the wind
Embrace a way to heal
And the voices in me call
They praise my way

(Praise my way
Close my eyes and then let go)

Fleeing the chaos
I will hide inside the cyclone's eye
Can't escape the storm inside

Great breeze, you summon me
Your fury holds my soul in harmony
Great breeze, you summon me
Your fury holds my heart with certainty
Oh, carry all of my sorrow
Your fury holds my life's integrity
Oh, carry all my sorrow
(Carry on Carry on)
Oh
