

World's End

ILLUMISHADE

Bow down my love
And fill yourself with harmony
Your lips, your eyes
Your senses slowly disappear

Bow down, obey my love
And slowly follow me
I'll lead the way
To your so darkest fantasy
Let me be clear

Your dynasty will fall

May you be warned
Your wall shall break
Your soul betrays the everlasting joy

You may believe
You've got a choice
Close your eyes

You'll see the angel screaming
The ground disappearing here

Come closer angel
Hear the thunder of the sea
Breathe in the burning air
And see, the dead are free

Your grave, your curse, your sin
Your soul and fantasy
They'll lead a way
To your so darkest dynasty
Let me be clear

May you be warned
Your wall shall break
Your soul betrays the everlasting joy

You may believe
You've got a choice
Close your eyes

You'll see the angel screaming
The ground disappearing here
You'll see the old dark sword in my throat

Sleep now angel
Caress my soul
Your silent wings
Will guide me home
Embrace my sorrow
Embrace my shame
Guide me, I will follow

May you be warned
Your wall shall break

Your soul betrays the everlasting joy

You may believe
You've got a choice
Close your eyes

May you be warned

You may believe
You've got a choice
Close your eyes

You'll see the angel screaming
