

Doing It Right

Illy

I woke up this morning head like holy moly
Life in the fast lane, guess this just what the toll be
I don't need the guilt baby I know you told me
But you know I get when I get on and rolling
Ooooh wish I could stop the clock and get a breather
Every bird outside like we ain't sleeping, you ain't either (true)
Last night I was playing at my best
Now I'm laying in my bed sounds like the neighbours haven't left
But when that that Friday night knocking, ain't got a quiet option
Look future self that sounds like a your not a my problem
Deal with it later, til then, fly til we crater
I got black out curtains, my how they match the behaviour
Sunday mornings ruin my head
Said I'll never do it again, yep

And here we are
Back where we started
Yea we'll pay the price but don't think twice about it
So here we are
No doubt about it
You're doing it right if you swear you'll never do it again

Oh man
Full of regrets but they'll pass
When it's 530 Friday and I'm next to my glass
I'm a weekend warrior, that's me in a nut
And I'ma see you next Tuesday when I feel like a cu... Nah
Pardon my French, I don't mean to be blunt
But my cup runneth over, and that's reason enough
For me to go off, and show off
What a week we got some steam to blow off
I'm down for whatever man, what you know of?
Coming in red hot, me at my best
Told the bar staff they won't see me again

And here we are
Back where we started
Yea we'll pay the price but don't think twice about it
So here we are
No doubt about it
You're doing it right if you swear you'll never do it again

Man we've all been there on those Sunday mornings waking up like I swear I'll
I never do it again
Knowing damn straight next Sunday morning we'll be saying I swear I'll never do it again

And here we are
Back where we started
Yea we'll pay the price but don't think twice about it
So here we are
No doubt about it
You're doing it right if you swear you'll never do it again

Doing it right
Doing it right
Doing it right

Doing it right
Doing it right
You swear you'll never do it again
