

High

Illy

All that you give
Is what you don't deliver
Stuck in a phase
Misguided by mistakes
Your addictive poison is dragging me down
Trying to swim out I'm stuck
You're watching me drown

Yeah, we're going way up
We going forward like the brake cut
Hit 2014 with a Chain-Gun
And it stayed here, and that ain't changed once
Spent time studying the game, kept it near by
Get more attention when you pay close up
3 papers in a Range Rover
Cigars and [?] for the late [?]
Yeah, a brave heart never phased Hova
Whether from a 5 Star or a mates sofa
I'm Michael in Mike, and only beat one, two, three Yeah, I gotta bring it like it's stuck to me
Cause really who gives less of a fuck?
P Duk and Illy on the turn up (Yo 'Kill Me')
The flow infinite pool, so the rule is:
Hi to the good life, by to the bullshit boy

I'm high and rising
Alive now I'm fine cause I let you go
I'm high and rising
Alive now
(I'm fine cause I let you go
Yeah
I'm fine cause I let you go)

WOAH! Fair play my brethren
Two Step at a time on a Stairway To Heaven
I put it in the air like it levitating
Fuck waiting for it I'm a get-get-get get it
And small minds don't matter, nor chatter
We chasing all time ghost status
And most rappers ain't a candle to my back; catalogue
Let alone the fire that's 'boutta happen here
Laugh Now, Cry Never
If not now why ever?
Knocked down, mines better
Cause you only get a diamond with pressure
And you only get free when you let it go
So it's straight to the point - Derrick Rose
So Mumma raised no fools, so the rule is:
Hi to the good life, by to the bullshit boy

I'm high and rising
Alive now I'm fine cause I let you go
I'm high and rising (Going Up)
Alive now
(I'm fine cause I let you go
I'm fine cause I let you go)
