

Like You

Illy

I been meaning to tell you, I'm heading, was letting it quiet down
Know it feel like a shame, I'm just saying, them boys better treat yo u right

Don't call it goodbye I'll see you later

Just don't be a stranger

We've all left pasts behind

And it feel like, I been lost in this moment, and if I blink now its over

But its alright, I don't care if you don't, we can both let go, yea, we'll be fine

In the real life, nothing last forever I guess, so whatever come next
We can hold on to these highs

But I can't help myself with her
One taste never enough with her
You know me too damn well and I
I can't hit the brakes when I'm with her
But we love it, so

Fuck me up, all night
There's no one in my head like you you you
Give me one, more time
Cause nothing ever hit like you you you

Long nights of fever dreams
Water colored memories
We let it get a little out of hand
Lay your best intentions bare
But truth be told, if you're not there
How the hell would ever understand

Yeah I can't help myself with her
One taste never enough with her
You know me too damn well and I
I can't hit the brakes when I'm with her
But we love it, so

Fuck me up, all night
There's no one in my head like you you you
Give me one, more time
Cause nothing ever hit like you you you

Say you feel what I feel
Cause I never met no one like you
Like you
Like you, yeah
Say you feel what I feel
Cause there's never been no one like you
Like you
Like you, you, you
