

No Feelings

Illy

We back on our bullshit yeah
All that pull that push in here
Go back and forth go round and round
Let me make one thing clear
We don't need the break, but this'll get a little crazy the second we put it in gear
All the thinking can wait
Wild how things start to change
All the difference it make
When all the strings cut and fade
Don't you be falling, let the whole thing fall in place
And I ain't gon' lie to ya, I'll straight shoot
If you in this the same

Fantasy never helped us, no
Fairytale are a waste of time
I don't need you to love me, no
I don't need you to lie
Let's just get carried away, carried away
Forever just seems so yesterday, so yesterday
I don't need you to love me, no
We can love how it feels, but no feelings

Like what it is, what it ain't
Call it whatever you wanna say
Ain't here to promise break
Feelings written all on your face
Growing up, being grown ups, we got decisions we gotta make
But I fuck with you if you fuck with me, there ain't much more this should t ake, and
We stopped believing stories from the lullabies
But the hotel like a castle if a princess wanna slide
Vibe out wake up walk out on the other side
If we both know tonight ain't for life, tonight ain't for life

Fantasy never helped us, no
Fairytale are a waste of time
I don't need you to love me, no
I don't need you to lie
Let's just get carried away, carried away
Forever just seems so yesterday, so yesterday
I don't need you to love me, no
We can love how it feels, but no feelings

We can love how it feels but no feelings
We can love how it feels
We can love how it feels but no feelings
We can love how it feels but no feelings

We don't need all these feelings and it's written all over your face
Cause why'd we need all these feelings when they only end up in the way
We ain't no strangers
We been here before
You know my motions
And I know your thoughts
When it's all over
We'll walk out the door

Don't need to make it more, no feelings

Fantasy never helped us, no
Fairytale are a waste of time
I don't need you to love me, no
I don't need you to lie
Let's just get carried away, carried away
Forever just seems so yesterday so yesterday
I don't need you to love me, no
We can love how it feels, but no feelings

We can love how it feels but no feelings
We can love how it feels
We can love how it feels but no feelings
We can love how it feels but no feelings
