

Snow Tonight

Ilse DeLange

Come little darling run through the snow
Lights in your eyes, they keep out the cold
Dreams come and go
So Run little darling, go

Somewhere tonight
Someone is crying
So let's dry their eyes
And pray for snow tonight

I hope your wishes, all do come true
Carry these memories inside of you
Love all your life
That's my wish for you tonight

I hope you try
To see through the eyes
Of the child that's inside
Who prayed for snow

Tonight, feels like time is standing still Tonight you can't wait until
The light shows you that your world is dressed in white, so bright

Come little darling run through the snow
Lights in your eyes, they keep out the cold
Dreams come and go
One day I know
That I have to let go
And I'll say "Run little darling, go"
