

Was It Love

Ilse DeLange

Who throws out the lifelines?
Who can swim the deepest ocean?
Who can trust the sky won't fall?
Who can trust they know it all?

All the whispers that I share
All the moments by myself
When I know that you're not here
And I gather all my fears

And they're locked inside believe
But they're not inside of me
And it's fallen from a trust
And it all resolves to dust

Is it possible to see
With every moment over?
What the reason was for me
Was it love? Was it love?

Is it you who makes the sun rise?
Is it you who makes my eyes dry?
Was it you who gave it all?
Can I trust the sky won't fall?

I have loved and I have hated
I have jumped too soon then awaited
And every time I'm fallen down
And every time I almost drowned

And they're locked inside believe
But they're not inside of me
And it's fallen from a trust
And it all resolves to dust

Is it possible to see
With every moment over?
What the reason was for me
Was it love? Was it love?

So when I walk into walls
Or run out of control
Or feel I've lost my soul
Or I can't take no more

And when all I know is lost
I'm broken and alone
When I am just a ghost
Who's looking for her home
Like faith without faith

And they're locked inside believe
But they're not inside of me
And it's fallen from a trust
And it all resolves to dust

Is it possible to see

With every moment over?
What the reason was for me?
Was it love? Was it love? Was it love?
