They Died For Beauty

Farewell my lovely You sleep so cold And how I'll love you forever. My darling, I suppose

We had everything And still wanted more We told the stars down from the sky Sometime back in '64 Now I remember the memory Forever tonight.

Let these words be my testament To each day that went wrong Without you dear, I am nothing And there's nowhere I belong.

We had everything And still wanted more We told the stars down from the sky Sometime back in '64 Now I remember the memory Forever tonight Forever , fo-o-o-orever tonight.
