Imagine Dragons

In the dark, in the right of the middle mark
Just in the tear of everything we rise below the surface
In the watch from the distant 17
Surely others dreams have been gold and undone
It's not what you painted in my head
So much there is yet involved the colors that I saw

We are all living in a dream
And life ain't what it seems
Where everything's a mess
And all these sorrows I have seen
They lead me to believe
That everything's a mess

And I wanna dream
I wanna dream
Leave me the dream

In the eyes of a teenage crystallized
Are the prettiest of lights
That hang the hallways of the home
And the cries from the strangers I ignite
They don't keep us up all night we have the curtains drawn and closed

We are all living in a dream
And life ain't what it seems
Where everything's a mess
And all these sorrows I have seen
They lead me to believe
That everything's a mess

And I wanna dream
I wanna dream
Leave me the dream

I know all your reasons
To keep me from seeing
Everything is actually a mess
But now I, I'm leaving
All of us were only dreaming
Everything is actually a mess

We are all living in a dream
And life ain't what it seems
Where everything's a mess
And all these sorrows I have seen
They lead me to believe
That everything's a mess

And I wanna dream
I wanna dream
Leave me the dream
