Last Dance

Imago

I fall down again
I tripped on your story
I fade into one other crazy fault
Right on my heel I've held up

I wouldn't win if I try to do it all on my own
Stop it before I begin to believe that I can

If the world divides us now
And I'm [?]
Take all I have broken
As I fall tracing your steps
So the challenge is this
Would they find the faith and listen
The fate of the world resides
(Fate of the world resides)

Waitin' for your lead
I spend for your glory
I couldn't count the times I've broke your heart
(I couldn't count the times I've broke your heart)
But in the end I find myself starting over

I wouldn't win if I try to do it all on my own
Stop it before I begin to believe that I can

In the heart that bled for
(In the heart that bled for)
In the heart that bled for
(In the heart that bled for)
This madness

Sooner or later someone's gonna get it
Sooner or later someone's gonna get it
I'm givin' up my pride
Sooner or later someone's gonna get it
I'm givin' up my pride
Sooner or later someone's gonna get it
Given up my pride
Sooner or later someone's gonna get it
