

We deny
More of ourselves
We submit
We could be one
Save what you can
It doesn't matter
We host the germ of faith
And answer to one
Realize things unfold in it's due time
Run around
See if you can escape on tonight
The cycle see's the cycle knows
The cycle binds us
We commit
More of our kind
We admit
We could be one
Save what you can
It doesn't matter
We host the germ of faith
And answer to one
It breaks us all
Till we define
