

Save Our Soul

Imany

I was at home
Usually I don't watch the news
Cause again I'm not strong
Oh I wish that they told the truth
So that we could go on
They call it news
But it's so old
Nothing good ever comes
And they take us for a fool

Is it me?
Or is always the same again?
Or does it mean
That we are the one to blame?
'Cause we see and we feel their pain in vain
Maybe we are the one insane...
Insane

They were so small
Four of them
They were playing ball but it was a war zone
They heard a sound or maybe a blast in a flash
They are gone
Nothing but blood and broken bones
Through the warmth of our homes
I felt their quivers and the moans

Is it me?
Or is always the same again?
Or does it mean
That we are the one to blame?
'Cause we see and we feel their pain in vain
Maybe we are the one insane...
Insane

Who's to come to save our souls?
Who's to come to save our souls?
Who will reach inside the hole?

And then it goes on
The dancing deads on the crying songs from the mothers so strong
Wailing their names
Holding the graves
'Cause they're forever gone
It's somewhere else
So we feel safe
From the warmth of our home
I felt their quivers and the moans

Is it me?
Or is always the same again?
Or does it mean
That we are the one to blame?
'Cause we see and we feel their pain in vain
Maybe we are the one insane...
Insane

Who's to come to save our souls?
Who's to come to save our souls?
Who will reach inside the hole?
Save our souls
Save our souls

Won't you save our soul?
Won't you save our soul?
Won't you save our soul?
