

Stargazer

Imelda May

The pain
When you came
Then almost didn't
I drew strength from an oak
That swayed through the pane
Waving at me
In my crisis and crying
I breathed its calm
Moving me in harmony
Like the chord that
Connected you and I
I was afraid
But you? you were just busy
Turning your head
Getting ready to see the stars
Not wanting to miss
The unveiling universe
When you my love were the Greatest reveal of all
I gave you life
But because of you
I live it
