

Cursed

Immer

another nail in the coffin is appearing the death shows its teeth, devil is smiling heavy cup above head, knot under jaw line and above grave is the lie with passed pain

the true is dying
the lie is expanding

the lie inherits name and all property from the true even its face is changing - perfect chaos no one is versed whose face who keeps who really crying, who just lying glory of true long time ago fell down success of the lie celebrated on all battlefronts pretending true, the lie giving requital wishing to believers wonderful day the true is accursed, rotting in shallow grave slow disappearing, quietly, but forever the lie with new face walking around the world enjoying all wealth of rotting true

wishing to believers a wonderful day
