

Lost and Left Behind

Imminence

I can't run and I can't hide
From the pain that lives inside
Don't know how to let go
Of this perfect denial

Right here, right now
I'm fighting for my life
Don't take it away, away, away from me
I'm begging for a remedy

I couldn't see it coming
Crashing down around me
The darkness overcomes me

Still left behind

I'm wearing thin, can't you see
I'm my own worst enemy
Don't know what can set me free
From the fear inside of me

I'm fighting for my life
Don't take it away, away, away from me
I'm begging for a remedy

I couldn't see it coming
Crashing down around me
The darkness overcomes me
Lost and left behind

The hope instilled in me
It's slipping away, away, away from me
Lost and left behind in my own mind

It's slipping away

I couldn't see it coming
Crashing down around me
The darkness overcomes me
Lost and left behind

I couldn't see it coming
Crashing down around me
The darkness overcomes me
Lost and left behind

The hope instilled in me
It's slipping away, away, away from me
Lost and left behind in my own mind
