

Surrender

Imminence

Can't escape the gravity
Heavy lies the burden
Facing my reality
The pages aren't turning

What's the point when you feel
Nothing at all
I can't tell what is real
Inside these walls

Surrender
What if I sold my soul
To the devil and let it go
Scared to lose control
And surrender

Faithful is the silhouette
Coming back to haunt me
For I've become the architect
Of my own misery

What's the point when you feel
Nothing at all
I can't tell what is real
Inside these walls

Surrender
What if I sold my soul
To the devil and let it go
Scared to lose control
And surrender

What if I sold my soul

Surrender
Surrender

Surrender

Surrender
What if I sold my soul
To the devil and let it go
Scared to lose control
And surrender
