

This Is Goodbye

Imminence

This is goodbye
This is goodbye
This is goodbye

I'm begging you let go for heaven's sake
I promise you there's nothing left to take
Put a hole in my head and a lock on my chest
I'll be better off this way
I'll be better off this way

So break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to see this
When I walk out with my head held high
This is goodbye
Break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to feel this
Better look me straight into the eye
This is goodbye

I'm begging you don't look what's underneath
I'm telling you there's nothing left to see
Put a hole in my head and a lock on my chest
I think I'm better off this way
I think I'm better off this way

So break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to see this
When I walk out with my head held high
This is goodbye
Break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to feel this
Better look me straight into the eye
This is goodbye

So break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to see this

So break my legs and pull me to pieces
You stabbed my heart, now I want you to feel this

This is goodbye
This is goodbye
This is goodbye
