

Illumination

Immolation

I will become your world
All you see and all you feel
So follow...

I am the way
I am hope
I am the dream
I am the one you seek

Creating the illusion, groom you for my cause
I will break you no matter what it takes

Cradling your sorrows while draining your strength
Rear up in revulsion but now it's too late

Together in madness we'll proclaim our intent
To raze this world in resounding deceit

Bending your minds with my tongue
Entangled in my web like flies
Wear my love around you like a noose
A perfect world for those I have chosen

I am contempt
I am deceit
I am betrayal
I am the one to fear
