Force-Fed

Immortal Disfigurement

Slaves to nothingness
Bittersweet ignorance, deafening impurity
Targeted chaos constructed in front of our eyes
How can you be so fucking blind?
Deafening impurity
How do you not see that everything in front of you is not what it always seems?
Open your eyes, open your fucking eyes
This world is dead to me
What a waste of humanity

Who are you really fooling?
I see right through everything you don't want to see
Behind every closed door is emptiness and agony, born into lies
What's the point when the truth just gets buried?

Choking on false importance
Drowning in misery
A wasteland of filth

Eating from the wrong hands
Begging for more when you can barely stand

Force-fed ignorance
Eyes sewn shut, deaf and oblivious
The devil feeds on misery where there is no suffering
There is nothing to see, what a waste of humanity

Severed spines hanging from withering branches
Colonies of decaying hope bathing in falsity
Behind every closed door is emptiness and agony
What's the fucking point when the truth just gets buried?

Choking on false importance
Drowning in misery
A wasteland of filth

Force-fed ignorance
Eyes sewn shut, deaf and oblivious
The devil feeds on misery where there is no suffering
There is nothing to see, what a waste of humanity
Open your eyes
Force-fed till death
Choking on lies
When will it end?
Force-fed

Eating from the wrong hands
Begging for more when you can barely stand

When will it end?
This world we used to know is dead and gone
If you think you're safe, you're fucking wrong
Force-fed
Mindless peasants
Fucking force-fed till death
Open your eyes

Everything you think you know is fucked
Open your eyes, open your eyes
Force-fed till death, choking on lies
Enemy
Everyone is your fucking enemy
This world is dead to me

Force-fed ignorance
Eyes sewn shut, deaf and oblivious
The devil feeds on misery where there is no suffering
There is nothing to see, what a waste of humanity

Open your eyes
Force-fed till death
Choking on lies
When will it end?
Force-fed

Everything you think you know is fucked
Open your eyes, open your eyes
Force-fed till death, choking on lies
Enemy
Everyone is your fucking enemy
This world is dead to me
