

King

Immortal Disfigurement

I was sent to pave a path for the damned and destroyed to never look back
Remember me as you fall to your knees
I rose from the ashes with their blood on my sleeve
Only I choose when I leave

Witness eternal reign
It was meant to be this way
King of all
Prophecy
This is a cult
Bow with me

Flesh and bone will never stand in my way
March with me
Prophecy
This is my reign

This crown made of fragments and debris collected from the lowest of hell
A place so cold
A place I know too well
I often hear it calling internally
Embodied by the darkest realm

Witness eternal reign
It was meant to be this way
King of all
Prophecy
This is a cult
Bow with me

Flesh and bone will never stand in my way
March with me
Prophecy
This is my reign
Army of the abysmal, this is your new home
Wretched souls resurrect
Never to be left in the cold

King OV all
Prophecy
This is the art of suffering

The king OV hell does not bleed
I bathe in the blood and resentment of my foes
I bathe in their blood on my throne
Witness hell
This is the art of suffering
The king of hell does not bleed
I bathe in the blood of my enemies as they bow before me

Flesh and bone will never stand in my way
March with me
Prophecy
This is my reign

I never left and I'll never leave
King of hell
Prophecy
This is a cult
Scream with me

Flesh and bone will never stand in my way
Internally embodied by the darkest realm
I embrace this pain looking down from my throne

King of hell
Prophecy
This is a cult
Bow with me
