

No Sun

Immortal

Stalk the woods, darkened twilight
Deep, the forest of cold
Misty ground swept in fog here
Lurk the ruins of old

On my path to the darkside
Blow the cold wind and snow
On my path to the darkside
I enter the wintry woods

At the mountain of evil
And the full moon, black sky
At the mountain of evil
Here, under the black mountainside, rises no sun
Oh, there rises no sun

See the cold face of the moon
Undead mood on this night
Feel the wind of the mountain
Ravens, swift from up high

On my path to the darkside
Through the cold wind and snow
On my path to the darkside
I enter the wintry woods

At the mountain of evil
Full moon, black sky
At the mountain of evil
Burning inside
At the mountain of evil
Snowfall from the sky
Trapped beyond the dark paths
Here, under the black mountainside, rises no sun
No, there rises no sun
No sun

Oh, no, there rises no sun
Now there rises no sun
