

Beware The Hunter

Impellitteri

We gather in the streets, everyone we meet, celebrating a good time
The wolf is on the loose, looking for a chance to make a statement for his life
Predator and prey, just another face, hiding in between the crowd
Ready for attack, better watch your back, devastation he has vowed

Watch for the hunter, he came to kill
Beware the hunter, seeking his thrill

I'm on my way
When the world is insane and there's nothing but pain
I'm on my way
Only love is the cure

We're living on the edge, insanity is here, every time you watch the news
We are getting numb, the wolf is on the prowl and no one sees the evil truth
Sleeping at the wheel, nothing left to feel, time is slipping through our hands
No one really cares, sympathy is rare, looking out for number one

Watch for the hunter, he came to kill
Beware the hunter, seeking his thrill

I'm on my way
When the world is insane and there's nothing but pain
I'm on my way
Don't you give up the fight, leave the dark for the light
I'm on my way
When your world is in flames just remember my name
I'm on my way, cause only love is the cure

Watch for the hunter, he came to kill
Beware the hunter, seeking his thrill

I'm on my way
When the world is insane and there's nothing but pain
I'm on my way
Don't you give up the fight, leave the dark for the light
I'm on my way
Now your world is in flames, remember my name
I'm on my way, only love is the cure

Beware the hunter
