

Just Another Day

Impellitteri

Searching around for sanctuary, needing a place to hide
Pressure is building inside of my head and it's killing me inside

Just another day
Fighting my frustration
Just another day
Searching for salvation

Burning inside like a raging river, hammer's about to fall
Stress is creating the wrath and fury, here comes the wrecking ball

Just another day
Fighting my frustration
Just another day
Searching for salvation
Just another day
Just one more distraction
Just another day
It's a chain reaction

You can feel the violence, stalking in the streets, you can hear the liars, every time they speak

I'm walking a tightrope, just waiting for the fall
Just another day
Just one more distraction
Just another day
It's a chain reaction
Just another day
Fighting my frustration
Just another day
Searching for salvation
