Burn

Impending Doom

As we get further in the end of times, They can take our lives, Ut not the fire that's burning inside.

Tonight I scream out to a world in gloom.

I pray for you to escape this impending doom.

More and more we hear rumors of war.

(Rumors of war)

More and more we abandon His word.

(We abandon His word)

And for what? And for what?

To knock on death's door.

And when the trumpets blast I am the conqueror.

This holy terror will be in the eyes of my enemies. Take this gospel as a certainty.

Through grey skies you'll see your King.

Put to death what you believe.

Witness the power of eternity.

Hell won't take no more. Burn, burn, burn them all. Hell won't take no more. Burn, burn, burn them all.

Hell won't take no more. Burn, burn, burn them all. Hell won't take no more. Burn, burn, burn them all.

Burn the demons in the church.

Hell won't take no more. Burn, burn, burn them all.
