

I Must End

Impending Doom

Bring it!

Wandering in a desolate wasteland
I thought I knew something, but I know nothing at all

Wandering in a desolate wasteland
I thought I knew something, but I know nothing at all
I thought I knew you; I never knew you at all

Every time I open my heart, I feel the whole thing ripping apart

(Liar!)

You made me open my eyes, and realize that I'm not the same
Every time I open my heart, I feel the whole thing ripping apart

(Liar!)

You made me open my eyes, and realize that I'm not the same

You can't put me in my grave
If I'm already there, punk!
You can't put me in my grave
If I'm already there
You can't put me in my grave
If I'm already there

This isn't heaven, so don't be surprised when hell shows it's face

This isn't heaven, so don't be surprised when hell shows it's face

Every time I open my heart, I feel the whole thing ripping apart

(Liar!)

You made me open my eyes, and realize that I'm not the same
Every time I open my heart, I feel the whole thing ripping apart

(Liar!)

You made me open my eyes, and realize that I'm not the same

Bring the doom!

I must end!

I must end!

I must end!
