

PUNISHMENT

Impending Doom

Don't fall for the fears inside your head
Another prayer, drawn towards self-inflicted punishment
Behind these walls, oblivion's waiting
Outside these walls, there's endless judgement
Everything's a mess, and I still feel nothingness

I can forgive everyone through Christ
Disappointment in a bitter form
Death I seek, I know I'm alive
I won't be unless you weren't supposed to be
I won't be unless you weren't supposed to be

Pick up the weight of the world and smash it
Pick up the weight of the world and smash it
I will never feel this punishment

Smash it down
Smash it
Smash it, ugh!
Smash, pick up the weight of the world, smash it again, again,
again, ugh!
(I will never feel this punishment)
Ugh, pick up the weight of the world, smash it again, again, ug
h!
(I will never feel this punishment)
Ugh, pick up the weight of the world, smash it again, again, ug
h!
(I will never feel this punishment)
Ugh, pick up the weight of the world, smash it again, again, ug
h!
