

TOWARDS THE LIGHT

Impending Doom

Die with honor
Die with honor

Towards the light
I will not lower myself for an abandoned crown
When your system that we've followed has failed us now
Suffer defeat but I will never be defeated
Real Man never conquers his foes, man perishes demons
In solitude, you will learn to kill, blegh

The most sensuous man in the room is the one that can look in the mirror
He's fighting a battle in silence
Not saying a word, but in a bloody war in his heart
You can't fathom

God, if You're listening
Don't forget my name in eternity
Forgive me, forgive me

(Forgive me, forgive me, forgive me)
Wounds of Hell
Won't defend me
Hands of Hell
Won't defeat me, yeah
