

Unbroken

Impending Doom

I don't live in fear.
Your doubts don't cross my mind.
While your head's in the sand,
I don't have the time.

Get on the grind, keep it moving.
Get on the grind, keep it going strong.
I won't stop.

Just watch me crush it. (crush it)
Breaking through all the barricades.
Just trust me. I know. (I know)
Nothing's earned without dedication.

You are walking away, but don't know where you're going.
My darkness has been lifted. I won't live in the shadows again.
You fall for anything. Back and forth, beneath the crashing waves.
I stand like an epic mountain, staying true to what I believe.

I will persevere through these violent storms.
My faith remains unbroken, stronger than ever before.

Get on the grind, keep it moving.
Get on the grind, keep it going strong.
I won't stop.

Just watch me crush it. (crush it)
Breaking through all the barricades.
Just trust me. I know. (I know)
Nothing's earned without hard work.

You are walking away, but don't know where you're going.
My darkness has been lifted.
I won't live in the shadows again.
You fall for anything. Back and forth, beneath the crashing waves.
I stand like an epic mountain, staying true to what I believe.

I will persevere through these violent storms.
My faith remains unbroken, stronger than ever before.

My faith remains unbroken, stronger than ever before.
My faith remains unbroken, stronger than ever before.
