

Memories To Dust

Imperanon

Reveal your source to me
Hold your hands out for me

To withdraw them in time
The reasons become obscured

These scars in my heart prove my undying affection The memories still so fresh remind me of my infection

Heal not the wounds on me
Let them remind of you

These marks in my mind provide my eternal damnation The vile darkest within directs me to my destruction

Heal not the pain in me
Let it remind of you

To withdraw everything in time
The reasons become obscured

The cruelty in my heart pulls me in to oblivion
The memories, turned to dark, deny me from salvation

Forever broken trust Excuses, lies and deception
The memories turn to dust and truth is just an illusion, for me!
