

Forced

Imperative Reaction

detached assemblage looming under pressure in rotting conditions it speaks clear minds savage nature to conquer the doors in what it all defines a shock of mental spark falls deep below and cracks to define an ignorant fault leading no one to believe the crevice sucking dry puts the feelings all to rest timing sequence fails all to simply be no more abrasion cut down bones amass too long what's this noise what's this noise the feelings embraced cannot relay killing the demon by ignoring the pain endeavors crawling beyond the lines seeing the dream as if a lie denying problems built inside drowning in life to burn and die follow them and remember nothing this request dies in poisonous gas

forced rehashed illusions caught between the lines parallels veering off crashing to defy corrosive blender cutting deep inside with this the body dies a touch of careless spot sending waves beyond our lives defying all the fault leading all to realize the crevice sucking dry jerks the dreaming into test alter sequence ways all to simply be no more words so extreme pointing to kinds the lives of so few equal the walls the primal fear to all of us inside a life to the point in which it dies

evading the message deep below the surface underneath the cries appended to the soul rotting failure to reach beyond the last when no one can decide a pain of blackened guilt surges upward through the skull for violating fault leading no one to receive the crevice sucking dry puts the feelings all to rest timing sequence fails and you methodically will lie lacerate attention harboring confusion in seething malfunction it speaks two ways archaic murder to reposition your heart i feel a shock of poison spit fires hard upon the face this denying fault leaving all of us to see the crevice sucking dry puts the feelings all to rest timing sequence fails all to simply be no more it wants so bad it needs so much

it screams so loud to feel your touch
