

The Signal

Imperative Reaction

Let's pretend this isn't happening
I know it's easy for you
Just keep moving in the same direction
You know we can will it away
We'll just avoid the cause
I know it's too much for you
To stop dwelling in the same reflection
Of all that's happened to you

Your eyes are open
And I don't want to see
I never thought you would be
Down here with me
Where the noise destroys the signal
Before it can be sent
Immobilized and weakened
By the words we never meant

Let's pretend this isn't everything
You know it's easy for you
Just keep living in the same delusion
I know it won't go away
We'll just avoid the cause
I know it's too much for you
To stop dwelling in the same reflection
Of all that's happened to you

Your eyes are open
And I don't want to see
I never thought you would be
Down here with me
Where the noise destroys the signal
Before it can be sent
Immobilized and weakened
By the words we never meant

Your eyes are open
And I don't want to see
I never thought you would be
Down here with me
Where the noise destroys the signal
Before it can be sent
Immobilized and weakened
By the words we never meant

Your eyes are open
And I don't want to see
I never thought you would be
Down here with me
Where the noise destroys the signal
