

Time Doesn't Care

Imperative Reaction

Pushed into the center
All sides closing in
Caught without an answer
As the floodlights sear my skin

And all bridges home
Lie buried below
The ruins of the past
If I could have known
How far this would go
I could have made it back, but

Time never stops
To let us find what we have lost
No remorse for our despair
Time doesn't care

Pulled into the spotlight
All lines moving in
Lost against the backlight
The inferno burns my skin

And all bridges home
Lie buried below
The ruins of the past
If I could have known
How far this would go
I could have made it back, but

Time never stops
To let us find what we have lost
No remorse for our despair
Time doesn't care

Time never stops
To let us find what we have lost
No remorse for our despair
Time doesn't

Time never stops
To let us find what we have lost
No remorse for our despair
Time doesn't care
