

A Crying Heart

Imperia

I'm afraid of looking into your eyes
'Cause I don't know
I don't know how I feel

'Cause my heart is buried in a bunch of lies
And you are the only thing that's real

Made a mess with my heart as bate
Guess I thought I'd be saved by faith
Afraid to look into your eyes
'Cause you see right through me
I'm living a lie

A crying heart
A crying heart

Force myself to deny what I feel
'Cause I ruined the opportunity to be real
I can't bare to look into your eyes
And say I don't love you
You know that's a lie

A crying heart
A crying heart

Tears of blood are falling down
It's my heart that is crying
I can hear it's awful sound
Cracking from inside out

A crying heart
A crying heart

Tears of blood are falling down
My heart is tired
So tired of crying now

A crying heart
A crying heart
