

Blindfolded

Imperia

Into the flames of desire
I go through them with you

Our souls are dancing
In the dark nights
Our souls dancing
And it feels like
Another dimension of love

I'm blindfolded and tied up
By you and all I see is dark

Your hands, your touch
And our desire

I feel safe
In your power

I'm blindfolded and tied up
By you and all I see is dark

Your hands, your touch
And our desire
Your hands, your touch
And our desire

Full of fire, so full of desire
I cum for you, you cum for me

Together we dance
On the waves of our desire
Give myself to you again
Completely under your power

Your hands, your touch
And our desire
Your hands, your touch
And our desire
Your hands, your touch
And our desire

Like one, our souls
Dance the night away
